

We feel that the petition of large phone companies to take over the business of providing internet service is one of large business monopolies and we and most are completely satisfied with the service we now receive. The company we are with are always easy to access with any problem we might have. The big companies are not easily accessible and don't really care in most cases. We are a small community and the personal service is one of the few we have at our disposal.